

Teree Caldwell-Johnson

Board Chair

President and CEO, Oakridge Neighborhood [<https://oakridgeneighborhood.org>], a nonprofit housing and human services agency in Des Moines' urban core that provides safe, affordable housing and wraparound services to create opportunities for individual and family success.

Teree was elected to the Des Moines School Board (DMPS) in 2006 and is currently serving her third four-year term. Teree serves on the board of directors of the National Civic League, Community Foundation of Greater Des Moines, Polk County Housing Trust Fund, Capital Crossroads, OpportUNITY, Refugee Alliance of Central Iowa, The Directors Council, One Economy Financial Development Corp, and Planned Parenthood North Central States.

She has received many awards, including the Faith and Freedom Community Leader Award, A. Arthur Davis Distinguished Community Leadership Award, and Business Publications Women of Influence.