

Ted Williams

Board Vice Chair

Principal, The William Group (TWG), an HR consulting and training firm serving clients in 21+ industries across the country.

Ted specializes in small business development, management coaching, workforce and workplace management, workplace diversity, equity and inclusion, investigations, and management & employee training and development.

Ted belongs to the Society for Human Resources Professionals, the Iowa Society for Human Resources Professionals, the Technology Association of Iowa, and the American Society for Training and Development, among others, and chairs the One Economy Financial Development Corp [<https://oefdc.org/>]. Previously he served as System Director of Human Resources for The Iowa Board of Regents.