

Ahmed Agyeman, PdD

Board Member

Ahmed is presently the Director of Evelyn K. Davis Center for Working Families at Des Moines Area Community College.

He is an executive professional with a Ph.D. in Educational Leadership and 15+ years of experience in leadership roles at DMAACC that include planning operational initiatives, establishing effective marketing strategies, managing complex budgets, supervising diverse faculty and staff, and guiding student success. Currently focused on directing strategic initiatives to expand community and global engagement across DMAACC and Greater Des Moines by addressing a variety of topics as they impact multicultural communities.