

Malcolm Hankins, MA

Malcolm Hankins is a public servant pastor and author. He currently serves as a City of Des Moines Assistant City Manager. A native of Texas, he has more than 30 years of progressively responsible local government experience in communities in Iowa, Arizona, and Colorado. In his current role, Malcolm is assigned to City departments addressing issues related to, among others, community development, civil and human rights, neighborhood revitalization, affordable housing, houselessness and equitable services. He is a member of the International City/County Management Association (ICMA), Servant Leadership Institute (SLI) and American Association of Code Enforcement Officials. Malcolm's commitment to public service stems from a strong belief that serving the needs of others is the highest form of leading. Malcolm studied Administration of Justice at Northern Arizona University and holds a Master of Arts Degree in Ministry from Phoenix Seminary. He formerly served as Pastor of First Watch Ministries, Phoenix AZ where he and his family supported the marginalized, poor and those experiencing houselessness.
